

Mrs. Miller And Willard Wirtz Visit Michigan

By The Associated Press
Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and Mrs. Stephanie Miller, wife of Republican vice presidential candidate William E. Miller, scheduled weekend visits in Michigan with less than four weeks remaining before the Nov. 3 election.

Wirtz was to be principal speaker tonight at a Mount Clemens dinner honoring Rep. James G. O'Hara, D-Mich.

Mrs. Miller, making her first visit to Michigan during a week-long campaign tour, planned to attend three Polish wedding receptions in Detroit and Hamtramck this afternoon after a motorcade from Metropolitan Airport.

In Pulaski Parade
Mrs. Miller, accompanied by her Polish-born mother, Mrs. Mary Novak Wagner, is scheduled to participate in Sunday's Pulaski Day Parade in Detroit and make a brief speech on her husband's behalf afterward.

Another Democratic congressional candidate was to be honored at a fund-raising dinner tonight. The Lansing event honoring Boyd K. Benedict was to feature a speech by Former Gov. John B. Swainson.

Democratic lieutenant governor candidate Robert Derengowski was slated to serve as toastmaster. Also expected to attend were Secretary of State James Hare, Democratic State Chairman Zoltan Ferenczy, and state AFL-CIO President August Scholle.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said in remarks prepared for the Michigan Machinists Council Conference in Jackson the extensive research structure used for the nation's space and defense needs may soon be able to help with such problems as air-pollution, mass transportation and education.

Staeber Presents Award
Also today, Hart planned to tell the Trade Union Leadership Council Education Foundation in Detroit that pockets of poverty must be attacked by "the sort of massive aid that only the federal government can provide."

Democratic gubernatorial candidate Neil Staeber was to present the TULC's first annual G. Mennen Williams achievement award to Mrs. Geraldine Bledsoe of Detroit for "outstanding community contributions."

Gov. George Romney, meanwhile, scheduled a morning in Jackson, with a speech to the machinists conference after touring the Jackson County Fairgrounds and shaking hands in downtown Jackson.

Romney and his family were to attend a luncheon for legislators and state officials in East Lansing before watching Michigan State University in a football game with the University of Michigan Wolverines.

British Parties Speed Campaigns

LONDON (AP) — With only five days to go until the national election, Britain's two big political parties stepped up their campaigning today.

The latest polls gave Harold Wilson's Labor party a slight edge over Sir Alec Douglas-Home's Conservatives. But the margin is narrow, and a hot issue could still upset predictions.

The Conservatives appeared to be making an issue out of rowdiness at their political meetings. Quintin Hogg challenged Wilson Friday night to order an immediate inquiry into whether young Socialists are responsible for election hooliganism.

He said that when he was chairman of the Conservative party he would have ordered an immediate inquiry if there had been any suspicion that young Tories were behaving badly. Hogg said he was not suggesting that the Labor party high command was responsible.

"I have never known them to act like that before, and I do not think they have acted in that way on this occasion," said Hogg.

Main target for the rowdies Friday night was Home Secretary Henry Brooke. After being booed and heckled for 40 minutes at Luton, he said: "This is one of the most disturbing features of this election. There are signs of people being organized into groups just to prevent the speaker from being heard."

"It does not bother me in the least," he added. "It just shows the sort of people who support the Labor party."

Announcing the decision Friday night, Secretary of the Army Stephen Ailes said that the problem at Ord "appears to be under control."

Later, however, Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California announced in San Francisco that he had wired Ailes urging that the vast training base 100 miles south of San Francisco be quarantined because two civilians in the San Francisco Bay area "were stricken with meningitis after contact with soldiers recently returned from duty" at the post.

Four Centers Hit
A total of 84 men have been stricken at Ord this year, 13 of them fatally. This brought demands by Republican Reps. John F. Baldwin, J. Arthur Younger and Charles S. Gubser, all of California that the base be shut down. And the California Health Department expressed deep concern over the situation.

Defense health officials, meanwhile, said that the outbreak of meningitis in the Army had been concentrated at four widely spaced training centers. Beside Ft. Ord, they are Ft. Polk, La., 37 cases this year; Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., 35 cases; and Ft. Jackson, S.C., 33 cases.

The other armed services have escaped relatively unscathed, the officials said.

Patricia Arsenault, 29, of Millbrae in San Mateo County, died Tuesday of meningitis after a weekend visit from her fiancé, Pvt. William Garehime, 21, of Hillsborough.

Strain Identified
Type B strain of meningitis — which was the classification of 83 of the 84 Ft. Ord cases — was identified in Garehime Friday, the State Health Department said. The Type B strain also was reported responsible for Miss Arsenault's death.

Veronica Smith, 17, of San Francisco, was hospitalized Thursday at the Army's Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco with a diagnosis of meningitis. She was visited recently by her husband, Pvt. Antonio Smith, 18, undergoing training at Ft. Ord.

The Navy reported that through Sept. 30 it had 43 cases, 4 of them fatal. These occurred in U.S. and overseas shore bases and aboard ship.

Hideout Unknown
A terrorist gang kidnaped Smolen at gunpoint Friday morning in a daring act similar to other abductions carried out by the outlawed pro-Castro Armed Forces of National Liberation (FALN). His whereabouts remained unknown today as police stepped up a massive search.

It was understood that the State Department was asking the U.S. Embassy in Saigon for a report on the Troi case. The South Vietnamese government declined comment when asked whether Troi would be executed soon.

In Saigon U.S. diplomats were reported to be studying the proposed deal. One informant said Troi had been sentenced to

Johnson Covers Race Issue In Louisiana Talk

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson, seeking votes in the Deep South, has suggested that some Southern sections hear nothing at election time except "Negro, Negro, Negro."

Johnson said Friday night other issues deserve more attention, notably the question of war or peace. But he left no doubt about his own position on civil rights.

Any man worthy of the presidency, he said, must observe and enforce the Civil Rights Act.

Johnson tackled the racial question in a speech in politically doubtful Louisiana. And his remarks drew loud applause from racially integrated patrons of a $100-a-plate Democratic dinner in a New Orleans hotel.

The President's speech was televised, at party expense, in Louisiana and neighboring Mississippi.

The New Orleans speech ended three days of whirlwind campaigning for the President. Afterward he and the First Lady flew here to rest up briefly at the ranch. Johnson hits the campaign trail again Sunday.

Johnson launched into his "Negro, Negro, Negro" passage after stating that while some people want to do it, he is "not going to let them build up the hate and try to buy people by appealing to their prejudice."

The remarks were not in his prepared text.

Removing his glasses, he said he remembered hearing about a conversation between the late House speaker Sam Rayburn, then a boy, and an old Democratic senator from the South.

The President quoted the senator — whom he did not name — as having told Rayburn: "Sammy, I wish I felt a little better. I would like to go back to old (and I won't call the name of the state; it wasn't Louisiana and it wasn't Texas) I would like to go back down there and make them one more Democratic speech. I just feel like I have one in me. The poor old state, they haven't heard a Democratic speech in 30 years. All they ever hear at election time is Negro, Negro, Negro."

Johnson, who got a warm welcome from street crowds in Louisiana as well as from his dinner audience, first struck a civil rights note in greeting several thousand people who joined him at the New Orleans train station to welcome Mrs. Johnson at the end of her Southern whistle-stop tour.

"I have done all that I know how to treat all Americans equally, just and fair," he said. His second reference was in his text, which he read, at the fund-raising dinner: "Prosperity must know no Mason-Dixon line and opportunity must know no color line."

That brought prolonged applause. A bit later, having finished with his text, Johnson ad-libbed: "Whatever your views are, we have a Constitution, and we have a Bill of Rights, and we have the law of the land. And two-thirds of the Democrats in the Senate voted for it, and three-fourths of the Republicans, I signed it, and I am going to enforce it, and I am going to observe it. And I think any man that is worthy of the high office of president is going to do the same thing."

Chiang Ridicules Mao Land Claims
TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — President Chiang Kai-shek ridiculed today Mao Tse-tung's claims to territory outside the present mainland boundaries of Red China as preposterous.

Chiang assailed Mao as Nationalist China celebrated the 53rd anniversary of the Oct. 10 overthrow of the Manchu dynasty that led to the establishment of the Republic of China.

Mao's latest claim is to some Siberian frontier territory of the Soviet Union that was once held by the Manchus.

Kidnaped U.S. Airman Faces Threat Of Death
CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Anonymous telephone callers have warned that a kidnaped U.S. Air Force officer will die unless the life of a condemned Red terrorist in South Viet Nam is spared.

The threat against Lt. Col. Michael Smolen, 45, deputy chief of the U.S. mission to Venezuelan forces, was made Friday night in phone calls to The Associated Press and other news media. Identifying themselves as pro-Communist terrorists, they said Smolen would die an hour after the execution of Nguyen Van Troi, a Viet Cong. The calls were reported to U.S. and Venezuelan officials.

Wife In Shock
It was understood that the State Department was asking the U.S. Embassy in Saigon for a report on the Troi case. The South Vietnamese government declined comment when asked whether Troi would be executed soon.

In Saigon U.S. diplomats were reported to be studying the proposed deal. One informant said Troi had been sentenced to

Diplomats Seek Ways To Settle Soviet-UN Tiff

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — New proposals for settling the explosive U.S.-Soviet dispute over how to finance United Nations' peace-keeping operations may come from one or more small member states, informed diplomats said today.

They said such proposals might come at a meeting next Friday of a 21-nation working group, the only place where the United States and the Soviet Union exchange views at length over the crucial issue.

The dispute centers on whether the General Assembly or the Security Council should make peace-keeping assessments and whether the Russians and other nations should lose their assembly vote for refusing to pay assessments levied for Congo and Middle East operations. The United States has served notice it will call a showdown on the issue when the assembly convenes Nov. 10.

Smaller nations are seeking to head off a big-power clash that some fear could drive the Soviet Union out of the United Nations.

Soviet delegate Nikolai T. Fedorenko fed that fear when he told the Security Council Friday the United States was "trying to destroy our organization" by insisting that the right to vote in the assembly be denied to countries that have refused to pay Congo and Middle-East costs. He spoke at a meeting at which the council unanimously recommended Malawi (Nyasaland) for U.N. membership.

The United States had circulated a memorandum contending that if the Soviet Union and others were still two years behind in their U.N. dues when the assembly met, they should fall under the penalty of U.N. Charter Article 19. The article states that those two years behind "shall have no vote." Ten countries are that far in arrears now for failing to pay peace-keeping costs.

Baby Claimed By 2 Mothers
GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A case similar to one decided at the throne of biblical King Solomon has come before Circuit Court Judge Fred N. Searl here.

The court is asked to determine the natural mother of a 7-year-old girl who for the past 30 months has been a ward of Kent County Probate Court.

Seeking custody are Mrs. Ann Ogden of Holland, alleging she is the child's sister, and Ruth Crawford of Cleveland, Ohio, who claims to be the natural mother.

In court arguments thus far, Mrs. Ogden contends that her mother, the late Mrs. George Fisher, bore the girl June 3, 1957, in Ravenna, Ohio, but the birth was never certified.

Miss Crawford contends she bore the child June 8, 1957, at a Cleveland hospital and gave the baby soon afterward to Mrs. Fisher for keeping. There are no hospital footprint records to identify the child.

Mrs. Ogden took custody of the child after Mrs. Fisher died in 1960. Miss Crawford came to Michigan in May 1962 and sought to take the child from Mrs. Ogden but was stopped at a bus station here.

ATLANTIC, Iowa (AP) — Seventy years ago, as a girl of 9, Clara Otto sat down at the Zion Lutheran Church organ to play for a wedding.

She did such a good job that she has been the church organist ever since.

At a special service Sunday, Clara, now Mrs. Schelm, will be honored for her 70 years as the church's organist.

The Rev. O. R. Harms of St. Louis, president of the 2.6-million member Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, will be present.

Mrs. Schelm estimates she has played for more than 5,000 church services, weddings and funerals. She still plays for both Sunday morning services and an evening service once a month.

Three Officers Fight To Clear Their Names

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's former adjutant general said Friday night "a terrible miscarriage of justice has occurred" in the dismissal of himself and two other officers for alleged irregularities in the Michigan National Guard.

Saying the three had no chance to present the other side of the matter before their dismissal, Maj. Gen. Ronald D. McDonald declared:

"We are not clear as to what future action we can or should take, but you can be sure that as honorable men, we will clear our names."

Gov. George Romney ordered removal of command from McDonald; Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert, quartermaster general, and Lt. Col. Versel Case Jr., Neifert's executive officer.

Approved By Board

In doing so, he said land, money and liquor irregularities were "serious enough to assure me that the public interest demands they be relieved of their responsibilities."

McDonald met Friday with Neifert and Case and then issued this statement:

"Lt. Col. Case is guilty only of following orders and procedures of long standing. Gen. Neifert and I are guilty only of serving the interest of the State of Michigan under the direction and approval of the Military Board, which now refutes its actions."

"If anyone's character should be held up to public shame, it should be those responsible," McDonald said.

One irregularity listed by Romney was sale of more than 2,800 state-owned lots in the Camp Grayling area for an average price of $29.

"The facts are that the State of Michigan received 14 acres for every one exchanged," McDonald said. "The land acquired was vitally needed by the guard for training purposes."

Only State Benefits
"Before the land exchanges took place, an appraisal was made by the Lands Division of the Department of Conservation. The average purchase price of the lots agrees with this appraisal and no one 'made a killing' except the State of Michigan," he said.

As for charges of permitting the sale of liquor in armories, McDonald said local armory commanders are responsible only to Maj. Gen. Cecil L. Simmons, president of the Military Board.

"As administrative head of the guard, I have repeatedly recommended that this practice be stopped, or that the statutes be changed," McDonald said.

"As adjutant general, I will accept full responsibility for those matters over which I had control," he added. "But I know that a terrible miscarriage of justice has occurred—instigated by malice and self seeking, furthered by political interest and consummated by misinformation."

Politics Injected
McDonald said, "I can only assume that Gov. Romney has been grossly misinformed and poorly advised."

Meanwhile, Romney and Democratic State Chairman Zoltan Ferenczy accused each other of injecting partisan politics into the National Guard investigation.

Their exchange centered around purchase of 1-1/3 acres of Camp Grayling land for $400 by Col. Merritt W. Peterson and his wife, Elly, the Republican candidate for U.S. Senate.

Meanwhile, the auditor general continued investigation of Michigan's military establishment.

"Smear Tactics" Seen
And Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley ordered an independent investigation by his staff of whether any of the land transactions violated criminal laws, and of whether civil action or legislation would be needed to clear up ownership of the land.

Mrs. Peterson complained first that Ferenczy "inferred" that Gov. Romney inferred that her husband was mixed up in this.

"I think it is a shame that

General Motors Strike Drags On

NEW YORK (AP) — The General Motors strike dragged on during the week despite hopes for early settlement.

And a threat of a strike against American Motors developed.

As the GM strike entered its third week the effects were being felt in GM dealers' showrooms, where 1965 models were becoming scarce.

National contract bargaining was broken off between the UAW and American Motors, smallest of the U.S. automakers. The American Motors contract expires at midnight Oct. 15. The UAW said a strike would be called if agreement has not been reached by that time.

Students Drown At Marquette
MARQUETTE (AP) — Two Upper Peninsula college students were presumed drowned Friday after they challenged a companion to brave the gale-swept Presque Isle Point breakwater, state police said.

Officers said a search was continuing, despite continued high winds and waves, for the bodies of Mile Morcom, 20, and Kenneth Ostlund, 23, both of Ishpeming.

Police said the pair apparently had dared James Worth, 21, of Negaunee, a fellow student at Northern Michigan University, to walk onto the breakwater, which was being lashed by winds of up to 40 miles an hour.

Worth was blown or washed into the icy Lake Superior waters, police said, and Morcom and Ostlund went to his aid.

They tossed Worth a line, and secured it to an iron ring attached to the breakwater, police said. Seconds later, the two were themselves hurled into the water.

Police said Worth clung to the line and was rescued unharmed by a lifeboat from a nearby freighter.

Retired City Fireman Dies

James Edward Smith, 79, retired veteran of the Escanaba City Fire Department, died of a heart attack Thursday evening at his home, 940 N. 18th St., where he lived alone.

His body was found on the basement floor early Friday evening by members of the Escanaba City Police Department, summoned by neighbors, who became alarmed when they did not see Smith about the home during the day. He apparently had been attempting to light a furnace fire when he was stricken.

Mr. Smith entered the service of the Fire Department in 1919 at No. 2 Station, North Escanaba, and was a captain at the time of his retirement in 1957. He was a veteran of World War I.

His wife preceded him in death, Oct. 3, 1955.

He leaves one sister, Mrs. Errol Abell of Thompson, and is believed to have a brother in Louisiana.

The body was taken to the Alto Funeral Home.

Mother's Lively Spirit Overcomes Polio Handicap

BY PEGGY BRYSON

Mrs. Donald (Joanne) Priester, 33, of Rte. 1 Escanaba, is an amiable woman with the combination of determination and courage that makes her a successful worker and mother.

Mrs. Priester was stricken with polio when she was nine years old and the affliction left her without the use of her legs. She uses crutches to walk and has been driving a car for the past nine years.

This week is National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week and Joanne is a good example of a handicapped person who has gained profitable employment. Most employers agree that to hire the handicapped is sound business because these workers meet and often exceed production and attendance records.

An Active Life

Joanne is currently doing phone solicitation. She has done other telephoning work for the Amvets and a survey agency too. She also worked for Marcor's Enterprises, which recently suspended operation, making rose pagers used in restaurants.

She enjoys working with her hands and loves to cook and lists her specialty as Southern fried chicken. She and her family also do a lot of outdoor barbecuing in the summer and would like to do some camping next year.

Much of Mrs. Priester's time is taken up with her three daughters, Mary 13, Ruth, 11 and Shirley 9, she helps them with their 4-H projects, sews clothes and is active in the Pine Ridge PTA. She served as vice-president of the PTA for two years.

"My girls are a big help at home now that there older," Mrs. Priester said, "because they're in school I have more spare time and I really enjoy going out and working and the added income helps too."

"My husband built our home just four years ago and of course helping with the finishing touches on the house has kept us all very busy. When there's a spare moment I love to go 'kaffee klatching' with the neighbors. This is such a friendly area, I really enjoy my neighbors," she said.

Strength Of Spirit

Raymond Hendrickson, employment service interviewer with the Michigan Employment Security Commission in Escanaba, found Mrs. Priester a wonderful example of a handicapped person who works.

"Mrs. Priester impressed our office with the fortitude and drive she uses to raise a family, keep house and be active in the community. She still takes on this extra job with an attitude that typifies the attitude of the majority of the handicapped people," he said.

"These people don't want their handicap to deprive them of employment. They work with a strength of spirit that their strength of bodies lack."

"There are mentally handicapped people too who need the understanding of employers. Many of these people have spent a period of time in a mental institution and have been released as cured, yet they still carry the stigma of having been a mental patient and are deprived of many opportunities," Hendrickson added.

With each passing year there is a greater need and broader opportunity for the handicapped. Automation and the rapidly changing nature of today's jobs offers employers new incentives to make use of the special skills which the handicapped are learning in modern vocational rehabilitation.

Linguists estimate that at least 3,000 languages and major dialects are spoken in the world today. The figure, however, does not include hundreds of splinter languages known only to isolated groups of tribesmen in Asia, Africa and South America.

Deltans To Hear Nixon On Friday

Escanaba will be represented at the Republican rally in Ishpeming next Friday, Oct. 16, when Richard M. Nixon, former vice president and presidential nominee in 1960 headlines the 1964 GOP campaign effort in the Upper Peninsula.

Forrest Henslee, Delta County GOP finance chairman, is in charge of Delta ticket sales.

By special dispensation, Catholics will be excused from Friday fast regulations and a meat course will be served.

The program will be one of the most outstanding in the long series of fund-raising Republican dinner programs, and will climax an active schedule for the former vice president.

Arriving at Marquette County Airport at 4:15 p. m. Friday he will be presented at an airport rally, which will accommodate 3,000 persons. This effort is being made to give the largest possible number of interested persons an opportunity to hear Nixon.

He then goes to the studios of WLUC-TV for a televised news conference with the peninsula press participating, then to the National Guard Armory in Ishpeming, where there will be a reception and dinner. He speaks at the dinner program and will make a brief visit at the dinner of Young Republicans being held concurrently in the C. L. Phelps school.

School District Committeemen In Menominee Set

The Menominee County Intermediate Board of Education at its Oct. 6 meeting appointed its three officers—Herbert Corey, president; Stephenson; Jerry Poupore, vice-president; Spaulding; and Dr. Roger Seidl, treasurer, Menominee—to the Intermediate District Committee for the Reorganization of School Districts.

Besides these three appointees, this committee will include 15 others—five to be elected by board of education members from high school districts, five to be elected by board members from non-high school districts, and five appointed by the probate judge.

The five from high school districts will be elected at a meeting of board members Wednesday, Oct. 14, at Stephenson High School. The five from non-high school districts will be elected at a meeting of board members Thursday, Oct. 22, at Wallace School.

It will be the duty of this committee to develop a plan for the reorganization of school districts. This plan, to be developed according to a procedure guide provided by the state committee, must be approved by the state committee before being put to a vote of the people.

Antlerless Deer Hunters To Get Cards By Oct. 31

Automated drawings have been set for Thursday, Oct. 22, to machine select nearly 200,000 applicants who will receive permits to hunt antlerless deer during Michigan's November firearm season, the Conservation Department announces.

As of Oct. 8, one day before the deadline for postmarking permit applications, it was estimated that about 250,000 entries had reached the Department's Lansing office, approaching the previous high of 262,000 submitted in 1963.

Entries are expected to exceed hunter quotas for most of the 67 areas which will be open to taking antlerless whitetails.

As soon as drawings have been completed for all over-subscribed areas, cards will be rushed to a commercial printer where they will be marked as valid permits or unsuccessful applications. If everything goes according to schedule, all hunters will get their cards back by Oct. 31, telling whether luck was with them in the drawings.

There are approximately 10,000 Peace Corps volunteers in 46 countries around the world.

RAY CLEVINGER, Sault Ste. Marie attorney who is the Democratic nominee for 11th District congressman, was in Escanaba today in the course of a 10,000 mile swing through the 22 counties of the new district in a specially prepared campaign van. He is pictured here with his wife Fran, who is accompanying him on the tour. Since the campaign started, Clevenger says he has traveled 35,000 miles by car in the district and in the rest of the campaign will seek votes from Drummond Island in the east to Ironwood in the west and from Copper Harbor to Menominee, Alpena and Charlevoix in the south.

ARA Says U.P. Projects Will Make 500 Jobs

The report of Robert Nathan Associates on its technical assistance to the Upper Peninsula Committee on Area Progress, announced earlier in the Escanaba Daily Press, has been released by the Area Redevelopment Administration of the U. S. Department of Commerce in Washington.

It says two full-time economists sent to the U. P. to help its leaders access their economic problem made immediate decision to develop "home grown" industry instead of looking outside the Peninsula for help.

"Evidence of a change in attitude was noted," the report said "when UPACAP changed its name from the U. P. Committee on Area Problems to the U. P. Committee on Area Progress."

"The 15 counties, hard pressed for tax revenues, nonetheless agreed to double their financial contributions to the support of UPACAP. (Actually Marquette does not participate.) And the State of Michigan assigned a regional planner to work with UPACAP's staff."

"The resources of the U. P. varied by section but they shared a common problem of severe and protracted unemployment and economic lag extending over several decades."

"The report noted that if conditions had continued through the 1960s as they had in the

Calvary League Will Host District Rally

RAPID RIVER — Rapid River's Calvary Lutheran League will host the Hiawatha District Lutheran League Rally Sunday, Oct. 11. The Hiawatha District includes the western part of the Upper Peninsula. Over 150 young people will be in attendance.

The rally will begin with worship services at 10:45 a. m. The program following the noon day lunch will be registration, 1-1:30; recreation, 1:30-2:15; Bible study, 2:15-3:15; coke break, 3:15-3:45; mystery feature, 3:45-5:35; banquet, 5:30-7:15. It will close with a consecration service beginning at 7:15 p. m.

Participating ministers will be Pastor Reuben Carlson, First Lutheran Church, Gladstone, and Pastor Tauno Jarvinen, Rock Lutheran Church. The lunch and banquet meals will be served by Calvary's L.C.W. units. The coke break will be sponsored by Trinity Lutheran League of Stonington with Sandra Sundstrom, president.

The rally's planning committee consists of Rev. George Olson, pastor of Calvary Lutheran, Carol Johnson, Escanaba, president of the Hiawatha District and Barbara Oberg, president of Calvary's Lutheran League. Rally day committees are: registration, Pam Moore and Karen Sundquist, publicity, Ruth Gullickson, and recreation, Lois Greengard and Margaret Soderberg.

New Jail Ready For Inspection

Delta County's new bastion of captivity, a $370,000 reinforced concrete structure with a criminal capacity of 44, becomes an official reality Monday.

At 11:30 a. m. the county Board of Supervisors will join other county officials in the laying of the cornerstone of the most modern jail in the State of Michigan.

Open house, previously scheduled to follow the ceremony, has been postponed until Sunday, Oct. 18, to allow contractors to finish final clean-up work, County Clerk William E. Butler announced today.

Time of the open house for the adult public will be from 2 to 4 p. m., Butler said.

Financed by a federal grant of $177,000 under the Accelerated Public Works Act and matching funds raised in the county by a 2 mill tax assessment for one year, the new jail will replace the current 76-year old building at 211 1st Ave. S.

Final cost of the building, because of modifications made during construction work, will exceed the original estimate of $254,000 by about $16,000, Butler said.

No plans have been made by the County Board for the old structure, though it is expected that it will be razed.

No action can be taken, however, until approval of the new building by federal and state jail inspectors.

Aside from the main cell block area, a pale green section of almost sterile construction, the new building includes a three-bedroom residence for Delta County's Sheriff, a squad room with locker and shower facilities for deputies, jail kitchen and laundry rooms, a two-way loud-speaker communication system to the cell block area, interview and interrogation rooms and a prisoner unloading area which, functioning electrically, seals one exit when the other is in use.

The basement of the one-story, L-shaped building has a large room beneath the sheriff's living quarters which has possibilities as an office for county officials and a smaller meeting room.

The actual cell block area includes four 6-man, four 4-man and four individual maximum security units. There are also two psychiatric cells and two tanks.

All are individually equipped with sanitary and shower facilities for prisoners.

None have any loose ends. Bed frames and tables, made of welded angle iron steel, were bolted into the steel sub-floor before the concrete flooring was poured.

Sanitary facilities have push-button control, rather than handles, which precludes the possibility of anything being removed for use as a weapon.

Mirrors, bolted into the wall, are stainless steel. Shelves in each unit for prisoners' belongings also have been bolted into walls.

All lighting and public address equipment has been installed in the guard corridor, a passageway about 3 feet which encircles the cell block area.

There are electrically operated locks on all exits from the cell block, as there are on the maximum security units.

Landscaping on the grounds is expected to be completed next spring.

THE CORNERSTONE, already a part of the new Delta County jail, is visible in the corner of the building. Cornerstone laying ceremonies will be held at 11:30 a.m. Monday. An open house for the adult public has been scheduled from 2 to 4 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 18.

MODERN IN EVERY respect, the new Delta County jail has a prisoner capacity of 44. Shown here is a four-man cell. Bunks are located along each wall, with a steel picnic-style table in the center of the room. The guard corridor is visible beyond the bars. (Daily Press Photos)

Dentist Killed In Blazing Car; Wife Being Held

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP) — Dr. Gordon E. Miller, a dentist, is dead, burned to death in his blazing car. His wife, Lucille, 34, a slim, dark-haired mother of three, is in jail, booked for investigation of murder.

Detectives say that Mrs. Miller — in a calm, quiet, unemotional voice — declines to discuss the answers to these questions:

What caused the fire?

Why couldn't her husband get out?

Why was there an empty gasoline can in the back of the car?

Why did it take from 12:34 a.m. — when the fire started — until 1:45 a.m. to reach a home a half-mile away to telephone for help?

Dr. Miller, 39, died early Wednesday in the right front seat of his leased small car.

When Highway Patrol officers reached the residence from which Mrs. Miller had telephoned, her attorney was already there. Together they led authorities to the still-burning car.

At the scene officers said

Duck Hunting Luck Is Good

Delta County had a good opener for its duck shoot Thursday, the Conservation Department reports.

Opening day luck averaged 1.5 bird sin Portage Marsh, compared with 0.5 on the opening day in 1963. The weather menu offered rain and winds which caused duck movement and brought shooting. Ducks were flying most of the day and there was lots of shooting.

Most kills were baldpate (widgion), mallards and green-wing teal, with lots of blacks and pintails also in the bags. There were few bluewing teal or shovelers shot.

A goose shot off Portage Point was identified as a Richardson's goose, one of 5 subspecies of the Canada goose. They weigh about 3 pounds, about the size of a big mallard.

There were fewer hunters than a year ago, when the season opened on Saturday. More are expected this weekend and there are ducks in Portage Marsh and elsewhere for them, the Conservation Department reports and good shooting is good generally in Delta County.

Geese have been migrating for 3 weeks and redheads, bluebills and other flight ducks are moving down, but there are still a lot to come. A count of waterfowl south of Ludington Park's bathing beach Friday indicated 2,000 waterfowl in the area.

Maize & Blue Plates To Bring In $165 Million

It's never been so easy to get an automobile or truck license in Michigan as it will be this fall, Secretary of State James Hare told managers of the secretary of state's offices in the 15 Upper Peninsula counties at the House of Ludington Friday night.

Only the registration certificate or the vehicle or the title have been necessary for licensing since Aug. 28. Previously applicants had to have both.

The 1965 plate season starts Nov. 2 (Nov. 1 is Sunday) and '65 plates will be valid after that date and mandatory at the end of February, 1965.

The plates for '65 are maize and blue to commemorate the the University of Michigan's upcoming sesquicentennial celebration and Hare predicts a record sale of 4,300,000 plates for automobiles and trucks next year. This year's sale will be 4,150,000.

The new license plates will be of 17 different kinds, all in the same colors. The categories include:

Dealer plates.

Historic car plates for vehicles 25 or more years old with a $25 fee for the licenses, which are good for life. The state sells about 1,000 of these plates a year and they're only useable for parades, displays, etc.

Manufacturers plates for research vehicles, with about 9,000 expected to be sold to the automotive industry and other purchasers. GM alone will buy about 800 of such plates.

Half year plates.

Radio ham plates with their station call numbers on them. Civil Defense status gives ham a role in any national communications emergency.

Motorcycle plates, trailer plates, etc.

Hare explained that the alphabet letters used before the numbers in plates are assigned to counties in order of population. Thus Wayne gets A, B, C, D and E and the end letters of the alphabet are to be found assigned to the less populous, northern counties of the state.

As vehicles increase there's pressure on the numbering system and for 1965, Hare says, plates will be numbered from "1" like this "0001," instead of "1001" and on. This adds 1,000 plates to each series and adds 300,000 numbers for Hare's office to play with.

Once this system is exhausted by excess numbers, he says, the state will probably go to 3 letters and numbers. Michigan ranks 5th in number of vehicles with New York and California at the top.

States vary in license numbering. Ohio issues a special plate for a $10 fee with the license's initials on it. "We discourage it," said Hare.

Sixty per cent of all vehicles licenses are sold in January and February, 40 per cent in the other 10 months. When that business slumps in the spring, Hare's office turns to boat licensing. In May and June, 1965 Michigan expects to register about 400,000 boats, the largest registration of any state in the world. Florida, California and Minnesota rank next in order in boat numbers.

Vehicle licenses will bring the state $165 million in the new license year. The money is all dedicated to road building or maintenance, goes in part to the State Highway Department for building and in part to the counties for road maintenance.

Illness Fatal To W. J. Bloom

William J. Bloom, 77, of Bark River Rte. 2 (Ford River) was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Francis Hospital Friday at 5 p. m.

Mr. Bloom was born in Schaffer July 27, 1887. He sailed on the Great Lakes many years and more recently was a mechanic for Electro Motives at LaGrange, Ill. He moved to Ford River when he retired 12 years ago.

He is survived by his wife, the former Alma Nollberg, one brother, Albin, Ford River, one sister, Mrs. Malvina Colnoir, Escanaba, and several nieces and nephews.

Friends may call at the Anderson Funeral Home Sunday from 5 to 9:30 p. m. Complete funeral services will be held Monday at 1:30 p. m. at the funeral home chapel. The Rev. Karl J. Hammar, pastor emeritus of Central Methodist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in West Ford River Cemetery.

What Might Have Been

The public looks for ways to economize in government always and it thought 15 years ago that it had found a dandy. The Michigan Legislature authorized the Mackinac Bridge Authority, which it had created to study the engineering and financial feasibility of a bridge across the Straits of Mackinac to replace the State Highway Department's ferry service there, to build the bridge.

The Legislature denied the Authority the use of the state's credit, however, and told it that it had to finance the bridge privately. That meant selling bridge bonds to private investors; the bonds to be retired with the revenues from bridge tolls. The Authority made a couple valiant tries to sell this package but failed and finally the Legislature authorized the spending of $417,000 a year in state funds for the operation, maintenance and repair of the bridge.

With that bait the bonds sold and the bridge was built and we now have the benefits of it and they are great.

The structure is an attraction to traffic in itself, one of the great engineering wonders of the world and the most expensive bridge built up to its time. We no longer have to race to Mackinac in the hope of catching a ferry, or wait in line and miss one. We can zip over Big Mac in a few minutes without delay, enjoying the thrill of being high above the Straits and looking to Old Fort Mackinac on Mackinac Island and to Fort Michilimackinac at Mackinaw City.

But people complain about the bridge tolls. It costs $3.75 a car to cross and that's $7.50 a round trip. No where else in Michigan does the state make a charge for use of an intrastate highway bridge. The toll resulted because the bridge replaced the state's toll ferries and because the Michigan Legislature—reflecting popular opinion—didn't think it a proper expenditure of state funds to build a free highway bridge there connecting the two peninsulas of Michigan.

Had the state used its credit for the bridge as it was doing at the same time with highway building in even larger amounts, the interest rate on the bonds would have been 2 per cent instead of 4 per cent and the bridge tolls today would be more than cut in half. More than 90 per cent of the bridge toll income today goes to pay interest charges, Larry Rubin, executive secretary of the Mackinac Bridge authority, told the Michigan Society of Planning Officials in their fall conference in Escanaba.

The bridge couldn't have been built at the time it was built except under the conditions that persist after the Legislature denied use of the state's credit in financing. New York State at the same time was financing $500 million in highway construction, said Rubin, at an interest rate of 1 1/2 per cent.

The bridge project failed to enthrall investment bankers because the site was so unpopulous. Concessions made to overcome their objections—high interest charges, bonding contract restrictions—now make it appear that the bondholders have the gravy and the bridge users have the bones, but this is hindsight and can't solve much.

What would have helped was foresight—the courage to use the state's credit to unite its two peninsulas. Now the link is mortgaged and Shylock mans the toll booth. But except for him the bridge wouldn't have been built. Except for Michigan's error the toll would be half what it is.

Finding The Way

All In The Family Of God

By RALPH W. LOEW, D. D.

By Ralph W. Loew, D. D.

We were flying over a jungle in Malaya when a small storm jostled our tiny plane. My seatmate, a traveler from New Zealand, looking down at the swaying trees and the thick underbrush shuddered and said, "If we came down here, not even God would know where we were." It wasn't a true statement, but we felt the loss.

A few weeks ago a Norwegian sailor died aboard a lake steamer. His family was abroad and so the funeral service was attended by no one but the pastor. It was a strange experience to stand alone, with no one there but the body of this not-so-old sailor. Yet there was a family in another port, and a letter could be written assuring that grieving family that the member of their family had received the rites of his faith. To them it must have seemed as though there was an immensity of loneliness, but one letter of understanding could break through.

Last week a little girl died in our city. She had been pursued by a whole series of unfortunate circumstances and had never known the happiness we associate with childhood. Now in her death, the clergyman who had been her friend was alone at this casket. No one had called to claim the body. No one had shed a tear. No one had done a thing to break through the immensity of loneliness.

It is the ironic fact in this crowded world that it is more and more impossible to be alone and more and more impossible to escape such loneliness. The immensity of the jungle is no more threatening than the jungle of the neighborhood where the young can die unnoticed and unmourned. The Norwegian sailor was kept in the friendship of his fellow-sailors and of his church. But the girl was not. This is our problem.

One man dying during the war was able to write: "If I should die think only this of me: That there's some corner of a foreign field

That is forever England."

But suppose he had not had the deep inbred loyalty with its remembrance what he was. It is this that is more and more the poignant and the imposing challenge.

The ancient poet cried, "If I forget thee, let my right hand forget her cunning." We're always in the danger of forgetfulness, having the small plane of our existence jostled by some unseen wind and tempted to think that not even God would know, or could know, where we are.

In such a time of forgetfulness and nonsignificance, there is the thrust of the promise that all men are of the family of God. There is also the gnawing weight on our conscience that, knowing this, we make that known in a myriad ways so that none, in this polite or cruel jungle, shall ever think that they are forgotten.

New Rules Cover Stereo Records

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Trade Commission has ruled that unless phonographic records have been grooved especially for stereophonic sound the words "stereo" and "stereophonic" may not appear on them.

And, the commission also ruled Thursday, manufacturers may not offer special discounts on records sold in supermarkets and drug stores because the practice puts regular retail record stores at a disadvantage. The trade rules for the record industry become effective Nov. 7.

Washington Comment

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Both the private pollsters and the private comments of certain knowledgeable Democrats make a continuing puzzle of the New York race for the U. S. Senate between Sen. Kenneth Keating and Robert Kennedy.

Private samplings put the two candidates very close, with a very large undecided vote still indicated.

Some veteran Democratic appraisers say in one breath that Bob Kennedy is in grave trouble in a lot of places, and in the next that their hunch is he will win in November.

Let's look first at what they consider some of the bad trouble signs.

One Democrat says he knows 15 district leaders in his own party in New York City who report they are planning to vote for Keating. More than a few of these are in Brooklyn, and a majority are NOT reform Democrats—as one might expect.

Much has rightly been made of possibly crippling defections among New York's sizable Jewish bloc. This is a source of real worry to the Kennedy forces. But some Democrats say Kennedy's evident weakness with Italian-Americans, the state's largest single voting bloc (18 per cent of the total), should be cause for at least equal worry.

At a recent Tammany Hall meeting in Manhattan, leaders from the Lower East Side and from both Irish and Jewish sectors of the Upper West Side sang the Kennedy blues. What they said in effect:

"Don't blame us if he takes a cuffing in our areas."

A careful poll of 600 persons in part of Republican Rep. John Lindsay's Manhattan congressional district showed President Johnson 5 to 1 over Sen. Barry Goldwater. But Keating led Kennedy 3 to 1, though the normal GOP margin there is around 5 to 4.

A reform Democrat, loyal party man though admittedly no friend of Kennedy's, says: "I fear there could be a mammoth secret vote against him."

It is generally assumed, of course, that Kennedy must take New York City by a margin of around 700,000 or more to triumph state-wide. Really heavy defections among Jews, Italians and other ethnic groups could prevent that vital buildup.

With all this gloom-mongering, what gives these Democratic appraisers the notion Robert Kennedy will, in the end, be elected?

One big thing is their growing belief that the President may take New York by soaring margins up to two million, perhaps surpassing Dwight Eisenhower's 1956 record margin of 1.6 million. The feeling is that such a Johnson victory inescapably would exert a substantial lift to Kennedy's shaky fortunes.

Says one Democratic politician:

"If Johnson should win by two million, slightly more than one million voters would have to split their tickets to elect Keating. Nothing like that has ever happened in this state on such a scale."

Another idea, often only fuzzily articulated, is that it is a mistake ever to underestimate the resourcefulness of a Kennedy.

Kennedy's managers, and the candidate himself, know their problems full well. They are hard at new approaches to the difficult waters of identifying him better with New York and casting off the damaging image some have of him as a power-hungry young man eager to hitch the New York wagon to his personal star.

To the crucial Jewish voters, many of whom originally disapproved the late John F. Kennedy but greatly liked his administration, Bob Kennedy's advocates may pose this:

"If you approved the late president's administration, how can you now wish to penalize Robert Kennedy, who was at his brother's shoulder, deeply involved in the decisions you liked?"

The effectiveness of such approaches as this might be decisive in this most significant of all 1964 U. S. Senate races.

More people get more news from newspapers than from all other sources combined.

Rising Profits Follow Trend

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Profit time is here again. And as many corporations start to release figures showing increased earnings in the past three months — most of the nation's banks already have — some business executives are getting even more touchy about public and government reaction to the record highs.

The administration has suggested that industries with mounting profits might shave prices a little for the consumer's benefit. So far very few have. And when prices are lowered it's usually because of competitive pressures.

Everything Climbs

Union leaders have pointed to improved earnings as a talking point for higher wage scales and fringe benefits, claiming a larger share of the earnings for labor.

But business spokesmen are stressing that profits still aren't high enough, that the record, highs are deceptive, and that industry must have still larger returns if it is to expand and create more jobs.

The argument that the record earnings mislead the public goes this way:

Rising profits reflect to a large extent the growing volume of production and sales. And these have been boosted by gains in employment and thus in total personal incomes and by the general spread of prosperity throughout the economy. The business leaders argue that everything else has climbed to a record, and profits are merely following suit.

They go further and say that actually in relation to sales and capital investment, profits are lagging.

Net Return Unchanged

For all U.S. corporations the after-tax return on net worth is estimated at under 6 per cent, or about what it has been for the last four years, although over-all business activity has increased notably.

The ratio of profits to sales, called the profit margin, has firmed up this year. But businessmen insist it is still much too low compared with the early postwar years when business was making a larger return and using that for expansion.

Business leaders contend that the chance to earn profits is the most effective incentive for increased productivity and efficiency. If profits are to be given a bad name, or even controlled by government, much of the incentive to produce better and more goes aglimmering.

Chairman Named For Rock Island

CHICAGO (AP) — Jervis Langdon, Jr., president of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, was elected chairman and chief executive officer of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Thursday.

The election took place at a special meeting of Rock Island directors, who retained R. Ellis Johnson as president of the line. A spokesman for the board said:

"It is the unanimous opinion of the board that the combination of Mr. Langdon and Mrs. Johnson will make an excellent team."

The Rock Island chairmanship has been vacant since the death in 1961 of John B. Farrington.

Bill To Extend Food For Peace Program Signed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed into law Thursday a two-year extension of the food for peace program, but said two provisions would be ignored because they are unconstitutional.

Johnson signed the measure in Indianapolis during a campaign tour.

The food for peace measure calls for a $3.5-billion program of surplus food sales and distribution abroad.

Sturgis Groups Plan Speedway

STURGIS (AP) — Four businessmen have announced plans for a $1.5 million speedway which they hope will be ready for Indianapolis-type and late model stock car racing next October.

They said the 1 1/2-mile, asphalt track, patterned after the Charlotte, N.C., speedway, will seat 80,000 spectators. Construction on a 440-acre tract 10 miles north of Sturgis on M-48 will start soon, they said.

Work already has started on a 4,000 foot drag strip to operate in conjunction with the planned Sturgis International Raceway.

The sponsors, Miles Kirkpatrick, Richard Plock and John Quirin, all of Sturgis, and Charles Zangler, Lansing, said 10 million people live within a 200-mile radius of the proposed speedway. They said officials of the U.S. Auto Club and the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing have reviewed their plans.

Granny Sticks To Her Advice

Dear Ann Landers: I do believe Ol' Rockin' Chair's got you. In a recent column you told a girl, "The best way to have a friend is to BE one."

Well, you're out of your fossilized mind.

Being a friend doesn't count half so much as having nice clothes, a car, plenty of spending money, stereo, a dad who can get tickets to the ball games and a few little odds and ends like that.

If you're going to dish out practical advice you'd better get your nose out of Little Red Riding Hood and give it to 'em straight. Money is king.

I laughed out loud when I read your gung-ho, wide-eyed testimony for honesty, integrity, loyalty, faithfulness, dependability — bla bla bla bla. It sounded like the preface of the Girl Scout Manual. Get with it, Granny, or turn in your typewriter. 20-20 VISION

Dear 20: I stick with my advice. If you haven't tried it, don't knock it.

Dear Ann Landers: In 1950 we bought a small home for $8,000. My husband is a carpenter and we made many improvements. We did much of the work with our own hands on weekends and evenings. Ten years later we sold the house for $14,000.

We rented for a while then bought a lovely home for $22,000. (The mortgage is heavy but we are managing.) We've made many improvements on this home too, and now the house looks as if it stood us at least $35,000.

I work in a savings and loan office. Last Sunday the head of my department was out to our place for a barbecue. The man couldn't stop raving about our "millionaire home." He kept looking at me as if I had embezzled from the business.

If other folks I know had made a smart investment in 1950 and worked as hard as we have maybe they'd have a "millionaire's home," too. How about it?—TAPED

Dear Taped: You say you work in a savings and loan office. Do you read minds as a sideline? How do you know what the man was thinking if he didn't tell you? And why are you so defensive about your home? Enjoy it and quit making excuses.

Dear Ann Landers: I plan

Planning Society Stresses Careful Research, Action

The minds of science, government and education met on common ground Friday and closed the two-day Michigan Society of Planning Officials' conference harmonious on two points.

1. Planning, to be effective, must be carefully researched, developed and carried out, whether in the field of local government, natural resource development or scientific research.

2. The Indian Summer, anticipated for the first part of October, didn't materialize.

The conference, after a morning panel session at the State Office Building featuring experts on resource and community development from Michigan State University, wound up with a speech dealing with the growth and products of research by Dr. A. Geoffrey Norman, vice president for research of the University of Michigan.

The morning was moderated by James Gooch, MSU Extension center information specialist from Marquette, who pointed out the importance of communication both to and from the public.

Panel members from MSU were Dr. Raleigh Barlow, chairman, Department of Natural Resources; A. D. Sokolow, Institute for Community Development, and Carl Goldschmidt, School of Urban Planning, Institute for Community Development.

Dr. Norman said that the planning process, like the scientific process, must be orderly and carefully prepared.

The problem has to be properly addressed, relevant facts obtained, an analysis made and creative solution worked out, Norman said.

"There the paths of the scientist and planner diverge."

The scientist, he continued, can test his hypotheses in the laboratory and report his findings in technical journals. The planner "must live with his solution," his only test public criticism.

Turning to his field of research, Norman said that unlike industrial research, University research is not an enterprise, not product orientated. "Products are often developed from research findings," he added, but that is not the primary purpose. The products of research on the educational plane are new knowledge and trained people.

The research process at the University of Michigan for last year consumed $42 million, Norman said. In 1956-57 it was $20 million.

Similar conclusions about the planning process were reached at the morning panel session by Dr. Barlowe, who spoke on planning for resource developments, an academic discipline he defined as "the overall development, use, management, and conservation of natural and community resources for human ends."

"Most of the initial development of Michigan's natural resources was accomplished in a spirit of rugged individualism" by private industry, Barlowe said. "Group and public action in resource development have their roots in the past, but they have never been as important as now."

"Assuming a need for community or group action in resource development . . . consideration must be given to (1) determination of the objectives to be attained, (2) the development of a feasible development plan, and (3) effectuation of the plan."

"Once the objectives are determined," Barlowe added, "Five steps can be visualized:

1. Assembly and analysis of information concerning the community, its assets and resources.
2. Identification of problems and barriers to action.
3. Determination of alternative opportunities.
4. Choice of the alternative or combination of alternatives to be pursued, and
5. Drafting of the plan for action.

Goldschmidt, whose panel topic was entitled "Zoning Needs Zeal" and was presented within the scope of Barlowe's comments on organization, said:

"The reason for ineffective land use control isn't zoning, it's the improper use of zoning" on all local government levels.

"We have not solved the

K of C To Mark Columbus Day

Escanaba Council No. 640, Knights of Columbus, will observe Columbus Day on Monday with a social meeting at the Pine Forest Lodge at Ford River at 7:30 p. m.

The Knights of Columbus was founded on March 29, 1882 by a young Catholic priest, the Rev. Michael J. McGivney, curate of St. Mary's Parish in New Haven, Conn., and it marked the fulfillment of his dream to unite Catholic men in a society founded upon the ideals of their faith.

Founders felt that the name of the new organizations should relate to the Catholic discoverer of America and emphasize that Catholics discovered, explored and colonized the North American continent, and that it should embody knightly ideals of service to church, country and fellow-man. After an original proposal of "Sons of Columbus," the title, Knights of Columbus, was adopted.

Arthur Messier Jr., and John LaPine are co-chairmen for the evening. Donald J. Crawford is grand knight of Escanaba Council.

Ensign

At Meeting
Ensign leaders attending the 4-H leaders meeting held in Escanaba Wednesday evening were Mrs. Victor Zar Jr., Mrs. Harold Lundquist, Mrs. Glen Lundin, Mrs. William Pajnic, Mrs. Lloyd Sundberg, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dominick and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Safford. Larry Bradford, 4-H county agent, showed slides telling the 4-H story. Discussions were held on fair displays, membership and leadership. Tom Safford, of Ensign was elected to serve on the 4-H council, as councilman at large.

Square Dance Club
The Ensign Square Dance Group will meet at the Ensign Township Hall on Sunday, Oct. 11 at 8 p. m. Any interested couples wishing to join the group are invited to attend the Sunday meeting.

U.P. Campaign On Presidentiksi Nearing Finale

John Clements of L'Anse, one time Republican nominee for auditor general, was intrigued by the Goldwater-For-President auto bumper stickers in Chinese characters used in San Francisco's Chinatown.

He thought Goldwater's Upper Peninsula campaign should have some such local color and developed the "Kultavesti Presidentiksi" strips that cause so many smiles in the U.P. these days. Some Finnish language has been borrowed to plug "Goldwater for President."

It is one bright little spot in a campaign that hasn't been much of a sparkler. With 23 days left before the Nov. 3 election, both parties are planning three weeks of activity, but the campaign doesn't seem to have caught much more fire in the U.P. than it has in the nation, where it has been described generally as having simmered down to a duel of personalities instead of issues.

The Republicans wheel out their biggest gun of the campaign since the primary when former Vice President Richard Nixon, the 1960 GOP presidential nominee, addressed an airport rally at Marquette next Friday afternoon, was a press interview on WLUC-TV and addresses a Republican fund raising dinner in the evening at Ishpeming Armory. He'll also appear at a Junior Republican dinner at the Phelps School, Ishpeming.

Ishpeming Rally
Flanking Nixon will be Mrs. Elly Peterson, GOP nominee for U.S. Senator, and Congressman Victor Knox. Allison Green, GOP nominee for secretary of state, will also be there in course of a four day U.P. campaign tour starting Thursday.

Elly Peterson will fly to Sault Ste. Marie Wednesday, Oct. 14, for a campaign luncheon, tour through Pickford and Cedarville areas to St. Ignace for a Business & Professional Women's tea in the afternoon, fly to Houghton to address a dinner.

Her U.P. campaign manager, John O'Brien of Escanaba will fly her to Ontonagon Thursday for a morning coffee hour, Munising luncheon, Escanaba for a 3 p.m. airport rally and Menominee for dinner. Friday she flies to Benton Harbor to join the Nixon party for a Lansing appearance and a flight to Marquette for the U.P. rally at Ishpeming.

Knox is expected to campaigned heavily in the western U.P. where the late Congressman John Bennett served the old 12th District, now incorporated in the new 11th.

Governor Romney is expected by his U.P. campaign lieutenants to make a blitz tour of the U.P. before Nov. 3, but no dates are firm yet.

Swainson Expected
The Democrats apparently will ride with the efforts of Ray Clevenger of Sault Ste. Marie, Democratic nominee for Congress in the new 11th District who is campaigning in a special van, and with the expected appearance of former Governor John B. Swainson and Robert Derongoski, the Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, for a climatic rally.

Secretary of State James M. Hare, did some politicking in the U.P. this weekend along with official appearances at a Marquette safety conference and Escanaba workshop for U.P. managers of the secretary of state's offices.

The nominees — 16 of them, 8 from each party — for the new state court of appeals are in a heck of a fix. They have to try to get through to the voters somehow, but they're on a non-partisan ballot with no party identification showing and they are wandering around like men from Mars, trying for public recognition.

In the 66 county Third District of the court which includes all the U.P. and most of Lower Michigan each party offers three nominees.

Lost Cooks Boy Is Found Unhurt

MANISTIQUE — Bobby Caldwell, 12, of Cooks was found unhurt by a searching party Friday four hours after he had left a hunting camp to go, where else, hunting.

State Police of the Manistique post reported Bobby found at 6:30 p. m. Friday in Section 8 of Nahma Township, north and west of the flowing well. The camp is located north of highway U. S. 2 and west of Federal Highway 13.

Police said Bobby was in good spirits and had already built a fire for the night.

Gladstone State Police and volunteers from Cooks aided in the search.

BONNIE SOVEY of radio station WLST examines a copy of "The Warren Report" which the Escanaba Daily Press will sell for $1.50 a copy. The book, published by the Associated Press, is the full, official report of the Warren Commission on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. The Press has not yet received its copies from the printer, but is accepting orders. The well-printed, hard cover book has 366 pages.

Press Offering Warren Report

The Escanaba Daily Press has ordered hundreds of copies of "The Warren Report" to make it available to its readers at a special price of $1.50 a copy in hard covers.

The 366-page book is the official, complete report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy prepared by the Warren Commission which made the government's investigation into the murder in Dallas last November.

The book offers an unparalleled opportunity for information on the historic crime. The report establishes under an enormous weight of testimony that Lee Harvey Oswald killed President Kennedy and that he acted alone, and that Jack Ruby was also a loner in his murder of Oswald.

Sample text:
"The first person to see Oswald after the assassination was Patrolman M. L. Baker of the Dallas Police Department. Baker was riding in a two-wheeled motorcycle behind the last press car of the motorcade. As he turned the corner from Main onto Houston at a speed of about 5 to 10 miles per hour, a strong wind almost unseated him. At about this time he heard the first shot.

"Having recently heard the sounds of rifles while on a

Fellowship Plans Activities

RAPID RIVER — Women's Fellowship of Rapid River Congregational Church met at the parish hall Wednesday evening and made plans for several activities.

The group will sponsor a bake sale Saturday, Oct. 17, directed by Mrs. Grace Burnett and Mrs. Esther Caswell. Friday, Nov. 6, will be the date of a rummage sale. A gift table will be featured at the sale displaying new activities. Coffee and doughnuts will be served during the sale with Mrs. Caswell, chairman.

Christmas projects undertaken by the group will be selling gift calendar towels and serving refreshments after the Sunday School's annual Christmas program.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. George Anderson and Mrs. Bert Wickham. The Fellowship's next meeting will be Wednesday, Nov. 4 with Mrs. Walden Johnson and Mrs. Carlyle Holmgren, lunch chairmen.

Money-Raising Letters Of GOP Barred In Mail

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The post office is holding 70,000 Republican letters in Phoenix for possible federal lottery-law violations.

GOP spokesmen said Friday the letters contain fund-raising tickets to be used in a drawing. The prize is either an expense-paid trip to the presidential inauguration or $500.

Maricopa County Republicans said their attorney had checked the matter and found no violations involved.

If the letters can't be mailed, the Republicans say they'll distribute them door to door throughout Arizona.

Phoenix Postmaster W. J. Mason acknowledged the GOP mail was being held up while he waits for a ruling from Louis J. Doyle of the Post Office Department in Washington.

School Board Meets Monday

The Escanaba Area School Board, facing a deficit of nearly $200,000 since Sept. 1 defeat at the polls of a 4 mill levy for operating funds, will consider recommendations for budget reduction at its regular meeting at 8 p.m. Monday in the high school auditorium.

Consideration of a new millage proposal and election date are also scheduled.

Other business listed for discussion concerns the Wells addition, student loan fund, the state commodities distribution agreement, transportation and policy on outside student activities, fund raising and rental of school facilities.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Taylor visited relatives in Niagara early in the week and yesterday left for Caledonia to visit their daughter and family, the Harold Nelsens.

WELCOME Double Wedding Today At Holy Family Church

Carol Nystrom

Holy Family Church in Flat Rock, with fall shades of mums and pompons in its altar vases, was the setting today for a double wedding.

Barbara Jean LeClaire of Milwaukee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward LeClaire, 405 S. 19th St., Escanaba, became the bride of Robert Michael Dowhy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dowhy, Milwaukee.

William Edward LeClaire, a son of the Edward LeClaire, claimed Carol Ann Charles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Charles, Gladstone Rte. 1, as his bride.

The double ring ceremonies were performed at 10 a. m. by Father Thomas M. Andary, pastor.

The 4 to 8 p. m. reception, which will be followed by a wedding dance, will be held at Flat Rock Town Hall.

Miss LeClaire's maid of honor was her sister, Sally, of Milwaukee, and Sharon Sarasin of Bark River, a cousin, and Sue Engman, Escanaba, were bridesmaids. Best man for Mr. Dowhy was his cousin, Terry Dowhy of Clayton, Wis. Groomsmen were Allen Price, Milwaukee, and the bride's brother, Jerry LeClaire, and seating the guests was Tom Bartz, Milwaukee.

Completing the bridal party were Debbie Charles, who was flower girl, and Timmy LeClaire, who carried the rings.

Miss LeClaire's gown of tissue silk and Alencon lace was styled with a scoop neckline, sprinkled with pearls and sequins. The bodice was fitted with bridal point long sleeves and lace trimmed the billowing tier on tier skirt with flowing chapel train. Her three-tiered bouffant veil of nylon illusion was caught to a crown of aurora crystals and pearls. She carried a cascading arrangement of white feathered carnations with red garnette roses.

Her attendants wore floor length gowns of peau taffeta with sheath skirts and detachable overskirts. The bodices were Debbie and Timothy also served as their flower girl and ring bearer. Debbie's floor length dress had a square neckline, edged in pearls, long tapered sleeves and a back panel of alternating tiers of lace and net from waist to scalloped hemline. The skirt was gathered in front and caught up by a white rose. She wore a crown of feathered mums and carried a basket filled with fall mums.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white silk organza over taffeta, with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, long tapered sleeves and full bouffant skirt. The front of the gown was trimmed with re-embroidered lace and the empire train was fastened to a pouf bustle.

Her bridal veil was shoulder length, made of pure silk imported English illusion and held by a pill box of peau de soie, highlighted by deep pearls. Cascading white mums and carnations with red garnette roses and ivy formed her bouquet.

Like Ensembles Her aides were in ensembles like those of Miss LeClaire's attendants and they carried identical flowers.

Mrs. Charles chose an avocado brocaded dress with silver thread design. She wore brown accessories, a felt pillbox hat and crystal jewelry. Her corsage was feathered bronze mums.

A breakfast for 50 guests was served at Flat Rock Town Hall preceding the double reception for 600 guests. Decorations for the reception are in the colors of the wedding, with a centerpiece of fall mums and pompons. The four tiered wedding cake will be flanked by three-tiered cakes on which rest the two brides' individual cake tops. The cakes, made by Mrs. Art Pepin, are decorated in peach and green roses. Assisting will be Pam Artley, pouring, Yvonne Germain, guest book, and Sue Eleegret, serving the cake.

Mr. LeClaire and his bride will live in Rockford, Ill., at 723 E. Moreland. The bride was graduated from Gladstone High School in June. Mr. LeClaire, a 1961 graduate of Holy Name High School attended Northern Michigan University, Marquette, and Bay de Noc Community College.

For the first time in many years, Ironwood's Jack Gotta is not among the top 15 pass receivers in the Western division of the Canadian Football League. Gotta, veteran end with Saskatchewan, has caught one touchdown pass this season. In the Canadian Eastern division, former Spartan Sherman Lewis has the best rushing average of all backs with 7.1 yards per trip on 24 carries. His 170 yard total ranks 10th in the division.

A victory for the Eskimos over Sault Ste. Marie today will clinch at least a share of the 1964 Great Lakes Conference championship. It would give Escanaba a final 5-0 GLC record in the school's last grid season in the conference. Manistique could finish with a 6-0 record, but Great Lakes standings are based on percentage and both, therefore, would finish with 1,000 percent.

Gary Hauswirth, former star halfback at Hancock, will get his first starting nod for the Northern Michigan Wildcats in their game at Mount Pleasant against Central Michigan today. Hauswirth, 5-10, 180 pound sophomore, was an All-U.P. selection in his senior year at Hancock.

The future football picture is bright at Iron Mountain. The Mountaineer jayvees clinched the Menominee Range Conference Reserve championship with a 46-0 victory over Iron River this week. The team's fifth straight victory was paced by quarterback Rudy Steiner who passed for two touchdowns and ran for another.

Negaunee St. Paul cemented its lead in the Mid-Peninsula baseball league race with a 10-1 victory over Republic as George Torreano fired a one hitter and fanned 15 batsmen. In the Porcupine Mountain Conference, Watersmeet won its sixth straight by trouncing St. Ambrose 8-1. That game was shifted from Ironwood to Watersmeet because the St. Ambrose diamond was covered with snow.

John Knispel, Menominee High School football coach, has been named president of the Northeastern Officials Association. Other officers elected recently were Ken Panzram and Werner Schomaker of Marinette, vice president and secretary.

Pickford, perennial Upper Peninsula track and field powerhouse, won the Eastern Conference cross country championship by edging DeTour 35 to 38. John Kryzcki of Pickford was the individual winner in 11 minutes flat.

Olympiad Opens Today In Tokyo

TOKYO (AP) — Emperor Hirohito of Japan formally opened the Games of the 18th Olympiad today in a splendorous, moving ceremony that mixed the wonders of the modern age with the ancient pagantry of the Orient.

The 63-year-old emperor stood ramrod-stiff and solemn in the royal box as 7,169 athletes from 94 nations paraded over the circular red dirt track of the National Stadium, which will serve as the center of the biggest Olympics of them all.

Competition begins Sunday in basketball, field, hockey, soccer, swimming, water polo, weight-lifting and hockey, setting off two weeks of a spirited scramble for gold medals in 20 sports.

The powerful United States and Soviet teams are expected to grab off the major share of the honors in their traditional battle of sports giants, but they were given no special recognition in the colorful march behind national flags.

A packed stadium of 80,000 cheered loudly for the one-man Bolivian team, a single flag-bearer, and rose to applaud the robe-clad entrants from the under-developed nations of Africa.

"I welcome the Eighteenth Modern Olympiad and hereby declare the Tokyo Olympic Games open," the little graying Japanese Emperor proclaimed over the loud speaker system while the Olympic torch burned from top the Eastern stands.

Five jet planes traced the five rings of the Olympic symbol in the sky in five different colors and rumbling tones came from age-old Japanese drums made from cow hides.

The ceremony was carried out

Injuries Hit Hockey Teams

TORONTO (AP) — When the NHL All-Stars and the Stanley Cup champion Toronto Maple Leafs face off tonight at Maple Leaf Gardens for the 18th annual All-Star game, the winner may well be the squad that has managed to escape with the fewest injuries.

The All-Stars, coached by Sid Abel of the Detroit Red Wings, will be missing three players — right wing Kenny Wharram of the Chicago Black Hawks, center Henri Richard of the Montreal Canadiens and defenseman Bill Gadsby of Detroit.

Wharram is recovering from a hairline fracture above the nose which he suffered in the pre-season campaign. Richard is out with a groin injury and Gadsby with a strained back.

Right winger Claude Provost of the Canadiens and defenseman Leo Boivin of the Boston Bruins have been added by Abel to help fill the gap.

Toronto will be without defenseman Allan Stanley, who has an injured knee, and forward Red Kelly, in Tokyo as Canadian government representative at the Olympic Games.

Left winger Dickie Moore, trying a comeback after a season's layoff and a knee operation, has not indicated whether he will play. Leaf Coach and General Manager Punch Imlach said Moore's condition has improved greatly over the past few weeks, but he said Moore will decide whether or not he'll play in the All-Star game.

Bob Baun and Jim Pappin, of the other Leaf players injured during Leafs' 17-game exhibition series, have been given the go-ahead for the All-Star game.

Cleveland Eyes Sole Possession Of First Place

By The Associated Press
The Cleveland Browns share one lead while the Pittsburgh Steelers have another all to themselves.

But while the Steelers hope their lead doesn't get any bigger after tonight's National Football League game, the Browns are looking forward to moving into first place without any company.

The differing attitudes of the opponents in the NFL's leadoff contest this weekend are understandable. The Steelers lead the league in most injured linebackers. The Browns are tied with St. Louis for the top spot in the Eastern Conference.

St. Louis doesn't play until Monday night. At that time the Cardinals will play the Western Conference — leading Baltimore Colts. In Sunday's games, Los Angeles is at Chicago, Detroit at Minnesota, San Francisco at Green Bay, New York at Dallas and Philadelphia at Washington.

The Browns, unbeaten but tied once in four contests, are expected to accomplish their aim. Quarterback Frank Ryan has thrown the second most touchdowns passes this season, nine, while fullback Jimmy Brown is in his customary No. 1 position among rushers, having gained an average of 90 yards a game.

As if Ryan and Brown weren't enough, the Browns will have the Steelers' linebacking problems going for them. Veteran Bob Schmitz, who was expected to fill in for Myron Potlios, has come up with a sprained knee and probably will not play tonight.

Schmitz should be joined by Bob Harrison, who is suffering from a bad knee after missing earlier games with a shoulder injury.

That leaves the Steelers with three linebackers, the necessary number, and no regular substitutes. The able-bodied three are rookie Bob Soleau, second-year man Ed Holler and Bill Saul, now in his third season.

The Chicago Bears also are plagued with injuries as they try to get back into the Western Conference race. The Bears, in the cellar with a 1-3 record, may be without three starters for their game with the Rams — center Mike Pyle, fullback Joe Marconi and linebacker Joe Fortunato. All have leg injuries.

Tommy Mason, Minnesota's running back, is doubtful for the second straight week, hurting the Vikings' chances against the Detroit Lions, who are tied with the Rams for second in the West.

The Green Bay Packers will have fullback Jim Taylor ready for the improving San Francisco 49ers, who whipped the Bears last week.

Broncos Blast Little Giants

BARK RIVER-HARRIS — The Bark River-Harris Broncos swamped Rock 55-0 in Wolverine Conference action here Friday.

The victory was the third against one defeat for Coach C. B. Roels' gridders who have two games remaining against Powers-Spalding and Pembine.

The teams battled to a scoreless tie in the first period before the Broncos opened their bag of scoring tricks with reverses, fake reverses, double reverses, bucks, pitchouts and passes accounting for eight touchdowns.

Greg Sagataw, Bronco quarterback, tallied four times while Dave Bolm, Len Scorbaki, Harvey Bellefeul and Bill Hall scored singletons and John Martin came up with a safety.

The defeat was Rock's fourth straight this fall.

Georgia Defense Tough For Navy

By The Associated Press

Defense, determination and Bobby Dodd just naturally go together.

Georgia Tech, supposed to be faced with one of those building years, now boasts an unbeaten record and is bidding for national ranking after defeating Navy 17-0 Friday night at Jacksonville, Fla.

True, the Middies weren't their old rollicking selves in the first half Jolly Roger Staubach unable to play because of an ankle injury. But when the Sailors did get up some post-intermission steam, Tech made it stand at its 16, 29, 37 and 12 yard lines.

One of major college's foremost defensive teams season in and season out since Coach Dodd took over from Bill Alexander in 1945, Georgia Tech this fall has allowed only nine points and a single touchdown in four games.

Meanwhile a fellow independent, Miami, forced heavily-favored California to settle for a 9-7 decision built on Tom Blanchfield's third-quarter field goal.

Miami has been riddled by the loss of 17 players, six of them starters, via academic troubles and disciplinary action. But if there is a football merit badge for courage, the sophomore-laden Hurricanes must have earned it.

They held super-passer Craig Morton fairly well in check except for the eight-yard touchdown pass to Jerry Mosher and

Berlinski Sets Pace With 4 Touchdowns

By RAY CRANDALL
(Press Sports Editor)

KINGSFORD — The Kingsford Flivvers turned Holy Name's previously unexplored end zone into Grand Central Station here Friday night while smacking the Crusaders 46-7 with an awesome display of football ability.

Coach Rae Drake's gridders used every weapon in the book to knock Holy Name from the undefeated list in Upper Peninsula prep ranks. The resounding defeat leaves only Kingsford and Manistique with unblemished season records.

After a tense first quarter in which the Flivvers scored only once the defending Upper Peninsula champs really opened the gate to Holy Name's end zone. They paraded four touchdowns across the Crusader goal line in the second period to lead 33-0 at halftime.

Build 46-0 Lead

Kingsford slammed two more TDs across in the third period to make it 46-0 and Drake called on his reserves with two minutes remaining in the quarter.

You name a football asset and the Flivvers will show it to you. They boast stunning team speed, impressive front

CRUSADER INJURED

Peter Petr, 183 pound junior guard, was sidelined early in the third period with a head injury and remained overnight at the Iron Mountain Hospital for observation. The Crusader athlete was due for release this morning. Coach Boy Nystrom announced. The injury was labeled a "severe concussion" by hospital officials.

wall size, a rocket launcher at quarterback, lanky flankers with sticky fingers and a boy named Berlinski.

Dick Berlinski, 5 foot 9 inch, 170 pound senior left halfback, is the unchallenged leader of the fabulous Flivver offense. Berlinski combines blinding speed, shocking power and elusive hips into a deadly scoring machine.

Entering last night's game with 110 points, Berlinski tallied four touchdowns and four extra points to boost his season total to 138, an average of 23 per game.

Gains 184 Yards

Berlinski carried the ball 21 times for 184 yards, gaining 168 in 18 trips in the first half.

He went both ways, and on defense intercepted a pair of Holy Name passes. He handled punting and kickoff chores in impressive fashion. Berlinski's scoring runs covered 5, 30, 1 and 9 yards.

Kingsford had a vast advantage in the statistics, gaining 237 yards rushing and 130 passing as Dick McCarthy connected on four of 13 aeriels. Two of the completions went for touchdowns.

Holy Name gained 178 yards on the ground and added 51 through the air as Frank Trotter connected on four of 17 tosses. Tom Mein was the big man in the Holy Name running game with 107 yards in 12 trips.

Shandonay Scores TD

Holy Name's touchdown came in the fourth quarter when both teams had reserves in action. The Crusaders drove 75 yards in nine plays with Jim Shandonay scoring from the nine yard line and Trotter kicking the extra point.

Braves Jayvees Post 21-0 Win

STEPHENSON — The Gladstone junior varsity football team defeated Stephenson 21-0 here Friday night.

Gary Larson scored two touchdowns and kicked three extra points while Dan Gobert scored once for the Braves. It was their third victory to go with two ties this season.

Drug Deadline Effective Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Today is the deadline for makers of nearly 5,000 drugs to submit proof to the government that the drugs are safe and effective. The 5,000 include most of the important modern medicines your doctor prescribes — and some you buy without prescription. It is the beginning of a huge review of nearly all the drugs that have entered the U.S. market since 1938 — some 6,000 in number, from the sulfas to the cortisones, from tranquilizers to anti-histamines. It will take years to complete. But, as of today, the Food and Drug Administration must have in its hands reports on 5,000 of the drugs. The FDA expects full compliance and has not set up punitive action in advance. The drug makers and their organization, the Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association, have brought suit in Federal Court, challenging the FDA's authority and seeking to exempt some 1,000 long-used, brand name drugs from the review. The FDA has temporarily exempted the questioned drugs from today's deadline pending outcome of the suit. FDA experts want the review and argue that conditions change with experience over the years and with the introduction of new drugs. The sulfas, for instance, introduced as infection-fighters in the early 1940s, have been supplanted in most jobs by penicillin. They also want to spell out in drug literature any unhappy effects drugs might have which would only have been discovered after long usage in large numbers of patients. Some drugs are exempt from the new FDA review, notably penicillin and its derivatives and some other old-line antibiotics. There are the so-called certified drugs, passed for both safety and effectiveness by the FDA at the outset. FDA spokesmen say they are prepared to exempt other drugs from the annual check after the initial review.

Two Accidents Are Reported

Two accidents were investigated Thursday by the Public Safety Department. Alfred M. Neddow, 65, of 138 N. 4th St., was ticketed for failure to have vehicle under control following an accident at 11:35 a.m., in the 300 block of Deer St. Officers said his car hit the left rear of a parked car owned by Richard D. Wyers, 43, of 809 S. State St., St. Ignace. No one was injured. A car driven by Michael J. LeBrasseur, 16, of 318 Range hit the rear of a car driven by Dolores Michalik, 22, of 148 N. 4th St., in another accident at 11:35 a.m. LeBrasseur was traveling behind the Michalik car which slowed for a gasoline truck stopping for the paper mill railroad tracks near the water tower.

State Briefs

EATON RAPIDS (AP)—Bryce E. Thomson, general manager of Miller Dairy Farms here and new president of the National Ice Cream Retailers Association, predicts victory for President Johnson in November on the strength of sundae's marketed through the dairy's various outlets. Concoctions identified as "Lyndon Sundaes" are a 2-1 favorite over identical sweets identified as "Barry Sundaes," says Thomson. He said the sundae polls have been accurate since their origin in 1952.

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Robert A. Hoard, 18, of Chicago, who pleaded guilty earlier to transporting a stolen car Sept. 5 from Chicago to Grand Haven, was placed on probation Thursday for three years by U. S. District Court Judge Raymond W. Starr.

DETROIT (AP)—The Polish-American Congress of Michigan has endorsed Gov. George Romney for a second term in office. Romney headquarters announced Thursday.

LANSING (AP)—The Michigan Department of Agriculture will auction off 44 Holstein heifers from state herds at the Southern Michigan Prison Oct. 14, the department said Thursday. The animals come from herds of the Ionia State Hospital, the Ionia Reformatory and the prison, the department said.

LANSING (AP)—More tourists are taking advantage of the Highway Department's travel information centers this year, the department reports. During the first nine months of 1964, 346,832 persons stopped at the centers, compared with 268,240 for the comparable period of 1963, it said.

LANSING (AP)—Eleven employee organizations and state agencies have asked permission to testify on pay rates before the State Civil Service Commission Tet. 19. The commission hearings are aimed at learning what pay and fringe benefit adjustments should be authorized for the start of the state's fiscal year next July 1.

Death Claims Mabel Reid

Mable Reid, 55, of Fayette, died suddenly at her home Thursday at 8 p.m. Born July 18, 1909 in Gulliver, she spent most of her life there. Ten years ago she moved to Fayette. She was employed at Johnson's Midway Market. Miss Reid was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Reid and is survived by a brother, Basil, of Gulliver, and two sisters, Mrs. Austin (Martha) Keenan and Mrs. Fay (Mary) Patterson of Gulliver, and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m., Monday from Messier - Broulliere Funeral Home with the Rev. Ingmar Levin officiating. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home beginning at 3 p.m., Sunday.

When Maj. A. L. Braun retired from the Air Force, he and Mrs. Braun decided to devote full-time to their hobby of raising barkless Basenji dogs. They bought property at Lost Lake, near Paradise, and now have four litters of puppies at their kennels. This month their picture was chosen for the cover of the magazine "Basenji" and a story on hunting in New Mexico.

Boston Tastes First Defeat

BOSTON (AP) — "This definitely was John Hadl's best game ever as a pro. And the victory was an absolute must for us."

Thus did San Diego Coach Sid Gillman sum up his team's 26-17 American Football League triumph over previously unbeaten Boston Friday night.

"We just caught Hadl on a hot night," philosophized the Patriots' Mike Holovak.

"I called audibles on two of my three touchdown passes — and one was a mistake," confessed Hadl.

Boston entered the game with a 4-0 record and a 33-28 victory over the Chargers, while the defending AFL champions, riddled with injuries, were 1-2-1. When regular quarterback Tobin Rote couldn't get the Chargers going, Hadl took over, completing 17 of 29 passes for 229 yards and a trio of scores, two of them by Lance Alworth, who had played only one quarter in three previous games due to a hamstring muscle pull.

Alworth grabbed eight aeriels for 124 yards. Paul Lowe, healthy for the first time, rushed 69 yards and caught a pass for 17.

Oakland is at New York to-night. Sunday, still unbeaten Buffalo (4-0) visits Houston while Kansas City's Western Division leaders invade Denver for the nationally televised test.

Long Win String Ends Downstate

By The Associated Press

Two safeties made the difference Friday night as Saginaw Lutheran Seminary gave St. Charles its first football defeat since 1960.

St. Charles, Class C leader in last week's Associated Press poll, suffered its first loss in 32 games when a high snap from center sent the ball out of the end zone for one safety and Gary Hoffman was trapped behind his own goal for another.

The squad had been held to one tie during their streak, when Shepherd fought St. Charles to a 13-13 standoff in 1962.

In Class A action, top-ranked Bay City Central preserved its undefeated record with a 49-0 triumph over Alpena. End Denvis Wirgowski caught a 57-yard touchdown pass and later returned an interception 68 yards for another score.

The state's leading Class B contender, Hillsdale, beat Coldwater 20-14.

Track Records Are Approved

TOKYO (AP) — Twenty-seven world records in track and field were approved Saturday by the International Amateur Athletic Federation and one tie for a record was accepted.

Heading the list were the sprint marks of Bob Hayes of Jacksonville, Fla. of 9.1 for 100 yards, and the time of 20.2 by Henry Carr of Detroit for the 220 around one curve.

In accordance with the decision to accept pole vault marks regardless of the surface, five vault records were approved. They included Brain Stenberg's marks of 16 feet, 5-inches and 16.8 made in 1963, John Pennell's mark of 17-3/4 and Fred Hansen's two efforts of 17-2 and 17-4.

The last one goes into the books. Stenberg is from Seattle, Pennell from Miami, Fla., and Hansen from Curo, Tex.

Ralph Boston's 27-4 1/4 in the broad jump was made too late for formal approval but his 27-3 1/4 was accepted.

NFL Football News 'N Notes

"HE SEEMS TO HAVE JOHN UNITAS' reactions" — the tribute Baltimore defensive end Ordell Braase paid to rookie quarterback Bill Munson after the Colts' 35-20 victory over Los Angeles last Sunday. "He stands up and takes the rush like an old pro," added Braase, "and we put some pretty heavy pressure on him (thrown six times for 51 yards)." Munson's coach, Harland Sware, praised Bill liberally. "I'm proud of him," Sware said. "He got a year's experience here in one day and he never lost his poise." Unitas, the great Colt quarterback, threw three TD passes, two of them in the third period to break open the game, but Munson actually had more yardage, 256 to 232. It was the fourth straight game in which Munson has played all the way on offense and only the Rams' first loss, quite an accomplishment for a rookie quarterback. Incidentally, Munson, like Unitas, wears No. 19.

"THAT KID HAS A JOB, and it's going to be tough to move him out of it," says San Francisco defensive coach Dick Voris of Dave Wilcox, the rookie linebacker who started his first National Football League game last Sunday. Regular left linebacker Ed Pine suffered line burn from the field markings and Wilcox was named to start against the Bears in his place. San Francisco beat Chicago 31-21 and Wilcox played a standout game — and won a job. Another top 49er rookie, quarterback George Mira, saw his first action in a regular season game but did not throw any passes. He guided the club in four ground plays at the end of the game and gained a first down on the first two. Tommy Davis' 53-yard field goal for the 49ers was a club record.

THE 367,467 FANS who watched the seven NFL games last Sunday constituted a one-day attendance record for the league. The average crowd was 52,495.

Quizzing Kids Stump Parents

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — A few children's questions that most parents can't quite answer:
"Who hangs out the stars at night, and brings them in before morning?"
"If God made the world in six days and rested on the seventh day, as the Bible says, why don't you go to the office on Saturdays?"
"What is algebra — and why?"
"Does it really help a snake to be poisonous, or doesn't it?"
"Why do you want to keep me a child forever?"
"Susie gets to wear long stockings and she is barely 11. Here I am, going on 12 already, and you won't let me wear anything but baby socks. Why, mommy, why?"
"Before we eat lamb, who takes off their coats? And how about chickens? Where do their feathers go?"
"Why are grownups so cranky, always complaining about noise and things like that? What's wrong with noise, anyway? Where does noise go after it gets through making sounds?"

"It's raining outside. What'll I do now?"
"When will I be big enough to have my own telephone?"
"I didn't mean to spill my milk. Do you hate me?"
"Why is it I have so much hair, daddy, and you don't have so much at all — when I am littler than you?"
"Mommy says you can't have any cholesterol. Can I have some, or does it hurt when you get it?"
"What happens to yesterday? Will it come back ever?"
"Why is it that people's faces on money never smile? They always look the same."
"What is a heart really like?"
"You mean my blood keeps on going round and round inside me even when I am lying down or sound asleep? Doesn't it ever get tired like I do sometimes?"
"Where do shadows go when there aren't any?"
"What good is sweat since it only makes you feel wet?"
"If I always keep on telling you the truth, when will it start doing me any good?"
"What fun is there in having a secret if you can't tell it to anybody?"
"Why is it that sometimes I feel so sad — and don't know why?"

Health Services To Be Expanded

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney says Michigan in the next two years will pay special attention to providing services "for the alarming number of disturbed children and adolescents needing treatment."
Speaking to the Michigan Mental Health Assembly, Romney listed this among several major objectives for the state's mental health program.
Another, he said, is continued promotion of the expansion of mental health services on the community level.
In addition, he said, "we will continue to support and encourage research in the prevention and treatment of mental illness and retardation."
Reviewing what he called "the exceptional gains which have been realized in the last two years," Romney said 1963 probably would be remembered best as the year in which the community mental health services act was passed.
The law permits a county or group of counties to form a local mental health board to study local needs and submit a comprehensive program plan to the state. If the State Department of Mental Health approves, the state splits the costs with the local board.
Other major developments, Romney said, were day-hospital programs for adults, community day care centers both for emotionally disturbed and severely retarded children, community-based social workers employed by the department and the first preliminary legislative approval for a new state institution for the retarded since 1956.

Dennis Swanson Enrolls At Stout

Dennis Swanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Swanson of 208 S. 18th St., Escanaba, has enrolled for the fall semester at Stout State University in Menomonie, Wis.
Total enrollment for the semester is 2,316—an all-time high and approximately 450 more than last year. Included in the total were more than 900 freshmen and transfer students, also a new record. Majority of the students are enrolled in undergraduate curricula in the school of applied science and technology or home economics.

Northern Breaks Student Record

MARQUETTE — Northern Michigan University reports a record total of 4,964 students served by the University this fall compared with 4,344 a year ago. Graduate and undergraduate enrollment stood at 4,260, an increase of 19.9 per cent.
The number of freshmen and transfer students reached a record high of 1,615.
In addition to graduate and undergraduate students, Northern registered 219 students in extension courses, 108 in the nursing education center, 293 in the area training center, and 79 in correspondence courses.
Five years ago Northern's enrollment was 1,792, and 10 years ago the total was 735.

In Service

James F. Moreau, aviation fire control technician first class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moreau of 3022 Lake Shore Drive, participated in a North Atlantic Treaty Organization naval training operation while serving with Heavy Attack Squadron 11, Detachment Eight. His unit, along with other naval units from Belgium, Denmark, Norway, France, the Netherlands and United Kingdom, is conducting training operations in strike, antisubmarine and anti-air warfare. NATO training operations are held periodically to test the coordination of NATO countries and develop their combined combat readiness.
Airman Clyde McGinnis, stationed at Kelly AFB, San Antonio, Tex., has received a promotion to Staff Sergeant, effective Oct. 1. Airman McGinnis is expected here to spend a two week leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McGinnis, 910 1st Ave. N., before leaving for an overseas tour of duty.

Chips And Splinters

Contributions To Chips Welcomed
What others think of us was revealed in part to Escanabans with the visit here of planning officials for the state meeting of the Michigan Society of Planning Officials.
Leo Farnum of Lansing and Harold Bright of Saginaw were among visitors who "took the tour" Thursday afternoon about the city to see how basic planning had resulted in improved development.
Thursday night at the dinner meeting at the Terrace Supper Club they wondered if the tour had not in some manner had been "rigged" to show only the town's best side.
"We thought perhaps we were being shown just the best parts of town," said Farnum. "You mean that it all looks that good?"
Harold Bright of Saginaw came right out and asked: "Where is the slum area? You must have some back streets you're ashamed of. Every town does."
The assurance that they had been shown the worst as well as the best satisfied their curiosity that Escanaba just doesn't have slums.
Tom Quinn, the restaurateur, civic promoter and Project Prider, has decided not to put a computer in the cash register department of his lunch room after reading the following paper on "Pure Logic vs. Common Sense":
"We heard recently of a man who had two watches. One gained two seconds a day, and the other had no works, only a dial with hands painted on it. The latest computer was programmed to determine which watch he should discard, and the computer, through pure logic, advised to keep the empty watch because twice every 24 hours it would show the correct time, whereas the complete watch, which gained two seconds a day, would give the exact time only once in 120 years and, therefore, should be discarded.
"There's a lesson in this somewhere!"

Bleacher Cost Case Settled

LANSING (AP) — In settlement of an antitrust conspiracy suit, Michigan and 155 local school districts have recovered $317,500 from six makers of folding gymnasium bleachers, Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said Friday.
It was the first recovery by State of Michigan agencies under federal antitrust laws, Kelley said.
Michigan filed suit in 1961, accusing representatives of the bleacher companies of holding private meetings at which they decided who would make the low bid and how much each firm would bid.
U.S. District Judge W. Wallace Kent approved the settlement agreements in Marquette and dismissed the suit.
After deduction of costs, the money will be distributed to the state and to the 155 school districts in 51 counties on a pro rata basis and determined by the amount of each district's purchase, Kelley said.
Defendants were Brunswick Corp., Chicago; Fred Medart Manufacturing Co., St. Louis, Mo.; Wayne Iron Works, Wayne, Pa.; Universal Bleacher Co., Champaign, Ill.; Safway Steel Products Inc., Milwaukee; Consolidated Foundries and Manufacturing Corp., Berlin, Wis.; and Mary Carter Paint Co., Tampa, Fla., brought in as a third-party defendant by Consolidated.
Michigan's settlement closely follows those in companion actions brought by the states of California, Illinois and Minnesota.
All the settlements were worked out before U.S. District Court Judge Robert E. Teahan of Wisconsin's Eastern District. Teahan wrote Kelley, "I am particularly pleased with your decision to settle the Michigan case. The settlement figure of $317,500 is in my opinion reasonable and fair."
Purchases by the state included bleacher installations at the Michigan State Fair, Northern Michigan University, Western Michigan University, mental hospitals in Newberry, Norville and Lapeer and military establishments at Cheboygan, Marquette, Manistee, Iron River, Baraga, Dowagiac, Kingsford, Albion and Sault Ste. Marie.

St. Ignace Hosts Future Nurses

Dr. Kenneth J. Schouldice, administrator of War Memorial Hospital, Sault Ste. Marie, will speak on "Nursing — A Career in Service" at the opening session of the annual U. P. Future Nurses Rally Saturday, Oct. 17 in St. Ignace.
The all-day meeting, co-sponsored by the LaSalle High School Future Nurses Club and Area VI of the Michigan League for Nursing, is the eighth time that U. P. Future Nurses have met for a regional get-together.
Diane DeLarve, Marquette High School senior and 1964 U. P. president, will welcome delegates.

Assembly Oct. 20 At Stephenson

STEPHENSON — The first assembly of the year at Stephenson High School Tuesday, Oct. 20, at 12:35 p. m. CST, will present Elton C. Fax in "West Africa Vignettes." Fax, formerly associated with the U. S. Department of State's Educational Exchange Program, has traveled extensively in the Caribbean, South America and West Africa and spent seven years as a chalk-talk artist for the New York Times Children's Book Co.

Shirley Lured By New Career

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Another career for Shirley Temple? It could happen.
In the 1930s Shirley became the most successful child star in the history of the movies. Later she made the transition to young-lady roles in films like "The Bachelor and The Bobby-soxer" and "Since You Went Away."
After the failure of her marriage to John Agar, Shirley retired to become Mrs. Charles Black, wife of a business executive. Four years ago she returned to acting with her own television show, on which she introduced and occasionally starred in fairy tales.
Children Are Fans
Now ABC and 20th Century-Fox are trying to induce her to return for a weekly series. She was in Hollywood a month ago for talks at Fox, which she kept solvent in the depression years.
Via telephone from her home at Woodside, south of San Francisco, she commented: "We've been talking about a series since last March, but so far I haven't seen a script. So I can't really decide until I do."
"But I think I would enjoy doing a series. My family likes it when I'm away. At least Charlie says I'm easier to live with when I'm working. And my children are always interested when I'm doing some acting. So I've got some fans rooting for me, anyway."
Keeping Busy
Shirley, now 35, said she wouldn't mind the travel. Los Angeles is only 50 minutes away by jet, she pointed out, and she got used to the 400-mile commuting during her two-year run with her previous series.
Even without the acting, Shirley keeps busy, as she has all her life. She has been working in educational television in San Francisco. She serves regularly in a children's day clinic. And she was recently made an honorary governor of the San Francisco chapter of the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.
"All my activities are in the morning," she explained. "I'm home by 2 when the children start to come home."
The children are Susan, 16 and a high school senior; Charlie, 12; and Lori, 10. None displays any yen to follow their mother's profession, although Susan is devoted to ballet.

Hare Proposes Motor Vehicle Inspection Law

MARQUETTE (AP) — Secretary of State James Hare Friday called for a periodic motor vehicle inspection law for Michigan, saying that "about two in every five cars pounding our roads are in need of mechanical attention."
Hare spoke before a regional traffic safety meeting at Marquette.
He said the problem of "sick cars" is a critical one and has much to do with the increase in traffic injuries and fatalities in the state.
Hare said virtually all the states which have such an inspection program have a better safety record than Michigan.

Air Force Plans Big Projects At Peninsula Bases

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Air Force plans to spend $8.4 million on improvements to bases in four states during the 1965 fiscal year.
Col. Eric Dougan, Air Force civil engineer, Ohio River, said $1,888,000 will be spent on three Michigan bases.
Dougan said $1,248,000 will be used for an engine test cell and various troop buildings at Kincheloe Air Force Base, Sault Ste. Marie.
A total of $328,000 will be used for supply and maintenance buildings and a connecting road at the Sawyer Air Force Base, Marquette, and plans call for a new $312,000 base operations building at Wurtsmith Air Force Base in Oscoda.
BUNGLE, NOT BURGLE
LOUISVILLE (AP) — A receptionist at a Louisville bank got off on the wrong foot.
In mid morning of her first day, she accidentally stepped on the burglar alarm button, bringing police squads to the bank. Before the day was over, she accidentally tripped the alarm again.

Race Issue Bobs Up In Britain

LONDON (AP) — "Keep Britain White!"
"If You Want a Nigger Neighbor, Vote Labor!"
"Stop the Blacks."
Britons see slogans such as these on soot-grimed railroad arches and brick warehouse walls.
They are meant to shock, hurt, humiliate. Like bawdy jokes, such sentences have no known authors.
All the responsible leaders of the Conservative, Labor and Liberal parties deplore appeals to race prejudice. The big political figures attack each other on every other issue, but they are doing all they can to keep the race question from generating tension—to keep the genie in the bottle, as one political commentator said.
May Be Big Factor
Yet the race issue, underplayed as it is, could be a big factor in Britain's national election if the voting is close next Thursday.
Britain's version of the white backlash even could deprive of leading political figure of his seat in the House of Commons. He is Patrick Gordon Walker, 57, who probably will be foreign secretary if the Labor party wins.
Gordon Walker is running in Smethwick, near Birmingham, against Conservative Peter Griffiths, a teacher and a borough alderman.
Many white working class families in Smethwick resent the presence of 4,000 Indians, Pakistanis and West Indian Negroes settled amidst an electorate of 48,000.
Griffiths has been quoted as saying: "Smethwick rejects the idea of a multiracial society."
Apparently this remark did not find favor with Prime Minister Douglas-Home, the Conservative party leader.
Many West Indians
Douglas-Home did not repudiate Griffiths. But the prime minister issued a general warning to all Tory candidates that "there must be no racial prejudice among any of us in this country."
The racial issue could be important in other areas. London now has 120,000 West Indian Negroes. In time their political importance could send one of their number to the House of Commons.
Their potential political strength already is felt in such London areas as Brixton, Paddington and suburban Southall.
In Birmingham, Manchester, Liverpool and many other industrial cities whole sections now are occupied by colored immigrants from the British Commonwealth nations.
Any citizen of the commonwealth or of the Irish Republic can vote in this election if his name as entered on the election register made up a year ago.
No one seems to know how many of the 700,000 colored Commonwealth immigrants registered. Until recently these people had tended to think of British politics as "white man's business." But there are signs this attitude is changing.

PRIVATE David Pokladowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pokladowski, Bark River Rte. 1, has completed Army basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, and has been transferred to the supply and logistics training branch for technical training. The 1964 Holy Name High School graduate enlisted in the Army's exclusive guaranteed program in July. Army enlistments are for three years.

Job Situation Best In 9 Years

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan's employment picture is at its best in nine years with the auto industry booming and with the addition of more than 100,000 industrial jobs since the first of the year, the Michigan Employment Security Commission said today.
Unemployment as of Sept. 15 — before the General Motors strike — was down to 2.9 per cent of the labor force in the entire state and 2.8 per cent in the Detroit Metropolitan area, the MESCC said.
These figures approached the record lows of the auto industry's great boom year of 1955. In November of that year unemployment was 2.4 per cent in the state as a whole and 2.3 per cent in the Detroit area, according to commission records.
As of Sept. 15 Michigan's total industrial employment stood at 2,805,300, or a decrease of 94,000 in unemployment since the prior month. Total unemployment was given as 85,000. The labor force statewide was 2,979,900.
The MESCC said the state's labor force had fallen by about 36,000 since mid-August because of the return to school of students.

Toebe Co. Low On U.S. 27 Job

LANSING (AP) — Walter Toebe Co. of Lansing submitted low bids totaling $760,286 for construction of five overpasses and an interchange on U.S. 27 in Clare County, the Highway Department reports.
Other low bids included:
—On M 146, 2.5 miles of paving and curb and gutter installation from U.S. 25 to M 21 in Port Huron, Blue Water Construction Co., Port Huron, $298,263.

Increase Noted In Foreclosures

WASHINGTON (AP) — Foreclosures of homes financed with FHA-insured mortgages are running at an all-time high. The same goes for house loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration.
But, the situation is not cause for alarm, say spokesmen for both the VA and the Federal Housing Administration. They call it an adjustment toward normalcy, from shortly after World War II when realtors eagerly looked for houses to sell up to recent years when supply more nearly met demand.
The VA spokesman put it this way: "A big factor is absence of price appreciation in the past few years. A few years ago a mistake in judgment as to value of a house could be remedied by just holding on to it a year or two. That time has passed."
FHA and VA officials agreed that foreclosures are up or down with the economic pulse of a community or area and the individuals affected. When a military base or an industry shuts down, foreclosures in that area are up.
When a man is out of a job, he may have to let his house go. The next leading reason, from the individuals' standpoint, is death of a husband or wife, divorce, or costly illness in the family.
The foreclosure trend is not limited to mortgages insured or guaranteed by the government, but prevails, though to a lesser degree, throughout the house financing industry, according to an official of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

State Briefs

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A grant of $73,015 has been received from the John A. Hartford Foundation of New York by Blodgett Memorial Hospital here to study means of enabling patients more easily to bear the weight of artificial limbs. The study is to be conducted by Drs. Alfred B. Swanson, Charles H. Frantz and James R. Glessner Jr.
GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Tentative agreement was announced Friday on a new contract between Light Metals Corp. here and United Auto Workers Union Amalgamated Local 19 with some 250 members. The local struck the plant Oct. 2 upon failure to reach a new contract before a Sept. 30 deadline.
GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Rep. Gerald R. Ford Jr., R-Mich., debates Kent County Democratic Committee Chairman William Reamon, his challenger for the 5th District congressional seat, here Tuesday. The first meeting of the two on a debate platform is sponsored by the local B'Nai B'Rith lodge.
LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney has proclaimed the week of Oct. 17-24 as Wayne State University Week in Michigan. Wayne, established in 1868, has been a state university since 1956.
